Applications accepted now until May 15

For Creatives and leaders who are asking questions such as:

- “How can I be more mindful of the stories I hear and tell?”*
- “How do I create positive change in the world through stories?”*
- “How do I grow as a leader, so I can serve my community better?”*

“What is harmful about the way stories are told by the media and by us? How could we improve it, so we do justice to the people in the stories we tell?”

- Hybrid Learning—combining hands-on field work, online workshops, in-person events and ongoing support
- Group Learning—90 participants from 3 countries: Cambodia, the Philippines, and Japan
- 30 micro documentary films made by participant teams (of 3 persons each) in their local communities

You Will Learn:

- HOW TO MAKE: Documentary filmmaking
- HOW TO LISTEN and CONNECT: Compassionate communication
- HOW TO BE CONFIDENT: in Creative collaboration
- HOW TO TELL A NEW KIND OF STORY: with an increased Mindfulness and sensitivity to the power of storytelling
