

Rochor Centre, Singapore

Public Symposium in Seoul, Korea

Sharing Responses on the Ground

—Aging Society and the Surrounding Challenges in Asia

14:00-17:30, February 28, 2017

Diamond Hall, 2F, Koreana Hotel

- Languages: English, Korean, Japanese
(Simultaneous interpretation)
- Admission: Free
- Co-Organizers: Wolgye Social Welfare Center
The Toyota Foundation
- Number of Seats: 80 (Registration will be closed as soon as it reaches the limit)

Registration

Ms. Choi Seonhee (Coordinator)
seonhee.choi@gmail.com

Inquiry

Group for International Grant
The Toyota Foundation
asianneighbors@toyotafound.or.jp

Public Symposium

Sharing Responses on the Ground

—Aging Society and the Surrounding Challenges in Asia

Wolgye Social Welfare Center (Seoul) and the Toyota Foundation (Tokyo) co-organize a public symposium on Aging as one of the common and pressing issues in Asia.

Through this symposium, the knowledge and experience of the insightful leaders in academia and grass roots practitioners from China, Japan, Korea, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam, will be shared beyond sectors.

Program

14:00 Opening Remarks

Shin Young Ja Director, Wolgye Social Welfare Center

Keynote Speech “Aging in Asia and Korea”

Kim Sungwon Associate Professor, Meijigakuin University

14:30 Session 1: Aging in Southeast Asia and its Responses

Thailand: Worawet Suwanrada Dean, Faculty of Economics, Chulalongkorn University

Vietnam: Tran Thi Minh Thi Deputy Director cum Head, Department of Women Studies, Vietnam
Academy of Social Sciences

Singapore: Simon-Peter Lum Kek Mun Assistant Manager, AMKFSC Community Services Ltd.

15:15 Q&A

15:30 Coffee Break

15:45 Session 2: Case Studies (Projects funded by the Toyota Foundation)

International Harmonization of the "Training of the Trainers" Program of Community Health and Social Service for Older Persons

Ogawa Takeo President, Asian Aging Business Center

Exploring the System of Livelihood-Centered Community Building for the Elderly

Li Yanyan Professor, Komazawa University

Proposing Supports for People Confronting Double Responsibility of Care

Azuma Keiko Chair, Sherlock Holmes

16:20 Panel Discussion

Moderator: Kim Sungwon

Panelists:

Choi Seon Hee Professor, Korean Bible University

Kawai Katsuyoshi Professor, Meiji Gakuin University

Session 2 speakers

17:00 Q&A

17:20 Closing Remarks

Suehiro Akira Professor, Gakushuin University

Chair, Selection Committee of the International Grant Program, the Toyota Foundation

